

By-Laws.

Article I.

This society shall hold a prayer meeting on Thursday evening of each week. The last regular meeting of the month shall be a consecration or experience meeting at which the roll shall be called.

Article II.

At the consecration meeting the roll may be called by the leader during the meeting. After the opening exercises and prayer the names of five or more may be called then a hymn sung. Thus varied with singing the entire roll shall be called.

-9-

Article III.

Business may be attended to at the close of any regular prayer meeting or at any other time by call of the President.

Article IV.

The election of officers and committees shall be held at the first meeting in the months of May and November. White membership on the board of officers or committees of this society shall be distributed as evenly as the best good of the society will warrant, among the different members. The offices shall not be considered places of honor to be striven for, but simply opportunities for increased usefulness, and and ill-feeling or jealousy springing from this cause shall be deemed unworthy a member of the society of Christian Endeavor.

When, however, a member has been fairly elected, it is expected that he will consider his office a sacred trust, to be conscientiously accepted, and never to be declined, except for most urgent and valid reasons.

Article V.

Names may be proposed for membership at the close of any meeting and shall be voted upon at the next meeting. And after such person is elected to membership he shall sign the constitution within four weeks.

-4-

Article VI.

Persons who have forfeited their membership may be re-admitted on recommendation of the Lookout Committee and a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting.

Article VII.

Letters of Introduction shall be given to members in good standing who apply to be released from their obligations to the society, such release to take effect when they shall become members of another society.

Article IX.

Money for the necessary running expenses of the society may be raised by taxation in the hands of the Executive Committee.

Article X.

Five members shall constitute a quorum.

Article XI.

These by-laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting, provided that notice of such amendment is given at least one week before the amendment is acted upon.